

Please do not implement any proposal that would weaken the Indiana Telephone Privacy Act! Since adding my name to the list, I receive virtually NO telemarketing calls, whereas I used to receive at least two a day, every day (except Sundays). Telemarketing is an invasion of personal privacy. As homeowners, we are allowed to put up signs saying "No Soliciting". Don't telephone customers have the same rights? Leave the Privacy Act as is -- Please.